

2008 ASCE CYM EMPLOYER RECOGNITION PROGRAM

FOR EXEMPLARY SUPPORT OF YOUNG ENGINEER INVOLVEMENT IN ASCE ACTIVITIES

Young Engineer enthusiasm, meaningful involvement, and growth are the keys to ASCE's future. As a means of fostering individual Young Engineer participation in Society activities, the ASCE Committee on Younger Members (CYM) has developed a program to help Sections and Branches recognize those employers who encourage their Young Engineers to get involved. Special recognition will go to those organizations that exhibit exemplary support evidenced by efforts such as:

- * Providing a model for involvement through company-wide participation in local, regional and national ASCE activities
- * Encouraging and supporting Young Engineers to attend ASCE meetings and seminars
- * Encouraging Young Engineers to prepare articles for publication in ASCE professional and technical journals
- * Assisting in the payment of local and national dues

Young Engineers who want their organization to be considered for recognition should complete the nomination form detailing their organization's level of encouragement and support and submit the completed form to CYM.

A Young Engineer is defined as an ASCE member in good standing and 35 years of age or younger.

Program Operation

The program will operate as follows:

1. CYM will review nominations at its Fall meeting and select organizations for recognition. Additional credit will not be awarded for packages in addition to the provided form.
2. Incomplete nomination forms will be disqualified.
3. For those organizations selected, CYM will:
 - (a) Publish a list of winning organizations in the Younger Member Newsletter
 - (b) Submit a list of winning organizations for publication in Civil Engineering magazine or ASCE News.
 - (c) Encourage Sections/Branches to provide winning organizations with local recognition
4. CYM will award Superior Employer Recognition to a nominee that showed exemplary support of Young Engineers in their organization during the 2007 calendar year. This award was created to recognize admired employers who acknowledge that Young Engineers are today's leaders in the profession and set goals for their personal development. The name of the winning organization will be noted in the Younger Member Newsletter and submitted for publication in Civil Engineering magazine or ASCE News in addition to the Younger Member Newsletter. CYM will encourage Sections/Branches to provide winning organizations with local recognition
5. Your organization may be nominated for the award each year. If your organization is a previous winner of the award, the nominator must be a different Young Engineer in the firm. The nominator must be an ASCE member in good standing.
6. Separate nomination forms are to be submitted for individual office locations of an organization with multiple offices.
