Please join the ASCE Philadelphia Younger Member Forum for networking and a presentation, asking the question, “Are We Placemakers?” Matthew Reese, P.E., of Urban Engineers, will be giving a presentation exploring the relationship between place making and engineering, specifically answering questions on how our decisions effect the fabric of our town’s and city’s economics, infrastructure, safety, and wellbeing. Appetizers and a cash bar will be provided.

Questions: Please contact Kevin Walsh (kwash@pennoni.com).

Note:

- Attendees must be 21+ to purchase and/or consume alcohol.
- Attendance is limited to 40 people on a first come, first served basis.
